Memorial Service

Canadian Association of Former Parliamentarians

Speaker of the Senate

Though present circumstances keep us apart, we gather in spirit to remember and honour the lives of the parliamentarians we have lost in the past year.

Parliamentarians are a community of women and men who have been privileged with the responsibility to represent their fellow citizens at the heart of our country's democracy. They give of themselves to others tirelessly in public service and dedicate their lives to faithfully representing and advancing the welfare of all Canadians.

When we mourn their absence, we mourn a collective loss as a society, and as a country.

And although we will deeply miss the presence of these colleagues, friends, family members and loved ones, they endure with us, through us, and beyond us.

On behalf of all honourable senators, I offer my sincerest condolences.

The Honourable George J. Furey, Q.C

Speaker of the Senate

Speaker of the House of Commons

This year has presented us all with unexpected and difficult challenges, and we have sought ways to adapt to the realities of living through a global pandemic. One of the most distressing of these challenges has been keeping our distance from one another, at a time when we most want to reach out to our friends and families.

The memorial service we hold today for the parliamentarians we lost in the past year is, of necessity, a virtual event. But while we cannot come together in person for the moment, those of us who served in Parliament alongside your loved ones are grateful for the opportunity to express our condolences and our appreciation. Our colleagues dedicated themselves to their fellow Canadians, to their Parliament and to their country. It is our privilege to honour them today, and to recognize their service to Canada. On behalf of all Members of Parliament, I offer my deepest sympathies to all of you who grieve today.

The Honourable Anthony Rota, M.P.

Speaker of the House of Commons

History of the Memorial Service

For many years, a tradition of Parliament has been to publicly acknowledge the death of a former Parliamentarian with a few words from all Parties.

In order to make recognition more appropriate and more solemn, in 2000, the Party House Leaders invited the Canadian Association of Former Parliamentarians to organize a Memorial Service to recognize all Parliamentarians who have died in the period leading up to their Annual General Meeting.

The Government of Canada has agreed to display the flag on the Peace Tower at half-mast at the time of the Memorial Service.
