Memorial Service

Canadian Association of Former Parliamentarians

History of the Memorial Service

For many years, a tradition of Parliament has been to publicly acknowledge the death of a former Parliamentarian with a few words from all parties.

In order to make recognition solemn, in 2000, the parties House Leaders invited the Canadian Association of Former Parliamentarians to organize a Memorial Service to recognize all parliamentarians who have died in the period leading up to their Annual General Meeting.

The Government of Canada has agreed to display the flag on the Peace Tower at half-mast on the morning of the Memorial Service.

Raymond Savard

Remarks from the inaugural speech given by General, the Rt. Honourable Georges P. Vanier, Canada's 19th Governor General, on September 15, 1959.

Each one of us in his own way and place, however humble, must play his part towards the fulfilment of our national destiny.
To realize how mighty this destiny will be, let us lift our eyes beyond the horizon of our time. In our march forward in material happiness, let us not neglect the spiritual threads in the weaving of our lives. If Canada is to attain the greatness worthy of it, each of us must say, "I ask only to serve."

A Reading

Read in English by Eileen Kilgour, daughter of the late former Member of Parliament,
the Honourable David William Kilgour

The Right Honourable Adrienne Clarkson, Governor General 1999-2005, Installation Address, Ottawa, 7 October 1999.

We must not see ourselves as a small country of 30 million people, floundering in a large land mass. We are among the healthiest, best-educated people in the world, with great natural riches. We have two of the world's greatest languages. We must not see ourselves as people who simply react to trends but as people who can initiate them. We must not see ourselves as people with whom things are done but as people who do things.
